CIRCULAR LETTER TO ALL MEMBER COMPANIES

Re: Workers Compensation Insurance
Item B-1321 - Changes in the Basic Manual
Classification Wording

The Bureau has adopted and the North Carolina Department of Insurance has approved a proposal to add or amend the phraseology or footnote wording of various classifications.

Revisions to phraseologies for the purpose of keeping classifications up-to-date and consistent with current business operations are included in Exhibit I. Revisions to delete language requiring prior Bureau approval before certain classifications can be used are included in Exhibit II. The correction of inconsistencies in connection with the inclusion or exclusion of "drivers" in various cross-reference phraseologies are included in Exhibit III.

Changes proposed by the captioned Item have been approved effective April 1, 1995, applicable to new and renewal business only.

Reprint pages for the Classification Section of the Basic Manual for Workers Compensation and Employers Liability Insurance will be distributed in the usual manner.

Very truly yours,

Jerry G. Hamrick

Workers Compensation Manager
